

In 2016, Camerican celebrated 100 years in the global sourcing business. Camerican sources canned and frozen fruits, vegetables, seafood, meat, grains, and specialty items from over 45 different countries around the world working with over 200 active suppliers. Camerican prides itself on working with a carefully selected number of processors in each of these countries that meet a rigid criteria for quality control, performance excellence, financial stability, and business integrity. Our supply base is built for demanding customers. Camerican is headquartered in Paramus, New Jersey with sales offices across the US.

We are seeking a Marketing/Packaging Label Associate/Specialist with project management experience and packaging expertise to assist with label development. This position will assist the Director of Marketing in managing the process to create labels for our customer's private label program. In addition, updates the status of multiple projects, anticipates problems and devises solutions and coordinates critical information between all departments, overseas suppliers, customers, and customer third-party graphic firms and print vendors.

Responsibilities include but not limited to:

- Ensures compliance with government regulated nutritional guidelines
- Confirms food label components are accurate
- Coordinates private label artwork updates and redesign projects
- Guides proofreading of packaging information for correct die lines, accuracy, and FDA/USDA compliance
- Leads external proofing process with QA, legal and suppliers for all packaging
- Manages communication process with internal and external stakeholders
- Creates and maintains New Product timelines with business team
- Assists in supplier switches to update packaging, databases, etc.
- Handles printer inquiries as needed for design creation and spec questions

Qualifications:

- 2-5 year of experience in marketing or project management; within food industry is a plus
- Bachelor's Degree
- Familiarity with graphic design and the printing industry strongly preferred.
- Proficiency in MS Office and Desktop Publishing
- Must have excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- Ability to work in a fast paced environment and manage various projects at the same time
- Detail oriented, organized and strong time management skills
- Food labeling background with familiarity of FDA regulations is a plus.